

PTH General Meeting
February 26, 2014

Meeting opens 6:20pm

PTH board in attendance:

Carol T
Beth G
Wendy J
Lori H
Sarah N
Sonjia B
Ericka C
Karly R

- Sarah N-Treasure report
$6,000 budget balance
After auction PTH will review the budget and dial it in better for the next 2 years
- Kelly G – auction information
Met at the hall with all of the key people involved – going well
Tables for 260 seats, 164 seats left to sell
Childcare available at Y across street
Glee club to perform and volunteer with childcare
Information will be presented at church to create interest and sell the remaining seats
Procurement – deadline is now, but will take items if you do have them
15 Live auction items + classroom projects

Other programs:

Restaurant frenzy

Make a difference (fund in need) – restroom over-hall, to see an immediate positive use for money raised

Volunteer needs:

1 adult in childcare

4 more adults for night of event

Several raffles will be going on:

- 50/50 cash on hand
- Golden ticket $100
- Pick a paradise

Heads or tails, $20 a ticket will be going on $35,000 is the goal

Volunteers needed for these events, including chairperson for all three

- Teacher appreciation week, May 5-9
- Grandparents day, May 14 - a half day
Brunch+ performance+ book fair
- Walk-a-thon – PTH sponsored

- Next General PTH meeting May 7- pot luck 5:30-7pm

- Enrichment program continues it's 2nd year with 5th ave theater April 2

- Kristin – Principal's report
LEST 90% participation, see February WOH for a list of awards
Re-enrollment growing well which is wonderful since it is a large part of the budget
Social studies/history curriculum review in near future
Ipads are happening 1:1 adoption
Working to keep students working on apple or Microsoft products and not just one
Door access system – 4 different doors currently have key pads, long process, but will be better for everyone
Thank you to Jennifer and Kelly for their hard work on the auction.

Meeting adjourned 7:05pm